CED Stone sponsors design and build competition at garden show

CED Stone is delighted to announce the launch of the Belvoir Castle Flower & Garden Show Design & Build competition. A competition which aims to give budding new garden designers and landscapers a chance to show what they can achieve in a small garden using CED Stone products in a show garden arena!

Now in its fourth consecutive year, the Belvoir Flower and Garden Festival takes place on Saturday 17th, and Sunday 18th July 2021 and is located in the Capability Brown parkland of the beautiful Belvoir Castle. With features such as celebrity gardeners, specialist nurseries, show gardens, live talks and demos over the years the show has gone from strength to strength.

Show founder and organiser Andy Tudbury said: "This will be our fourth consecutive year of the show at Belvoir Castle, and each year it has evolved in some way. We have some great content already lined up for the summer, some you will be familiar with, along with some brand-new additions! You will find newcomers to the gardening world rubbing shoulders with some of the best horticulturists in the country, specialist growers, garden furniture, sculptures, tools and much more. Fabulous foods will tempt you to sit, and relax while you listen to the live music on the stage.

"It's two days of inspiration and advice all in a stunning open air setting!"

Emily Cowan, CED Stone Marketing Executive, adds: "CED Stone have been great supporters of garden shows for decades, supplying materials for show gardens, exhibitors and features. So, when we were approached by Andy, with the idea of sponsoring a garden at the show, we knew it was an opportunity we couldn't pass up. We are thrilled to be sponsors of the 'Tranquillity' garden and are very excited to see what we're sure will be, some fabulous competition entries."

The competition is open to anyone involved in garden design and landscaping and the winning design will be chosen by CED Stone Group MD Giles Heap. Entries close 31st March 2021.
