On winning his badge of honour, Jason said "What an amazing night at the Property Care Association Best Practice Awards!"

"I wasn't aware that I had been nominated for an award, so was completely shocked and ridiculously excited to be named 'Winner' in the category of 'Employee of the Year' 2023. I was, and still am completely blown away!!

"Congratulations to all the winners and well done to everyone who had entered the awards. I believe this year was one of the most entered, which makes my award even more special."

He concluded "Thank you to all at the PCA, the evening was amazing, as was the International Structural Waterproofing Conference #ISWC23. A big THANK YOU, to the #DeltaTeam."

Steve Hodgson, Chief Executive of the PCA, said: "Our members tackle a range of issues that can affect people's homes and businesses, buildings of national importance or major infrastructure.

"Their talent and skills are highly valued, and our 2023 Best Practice Awards are an opportunity to celebrate the expertise and experience of our members.

"I congratulate Jason on the professionalism and commitment to quality service that is recognised with this award."
