

For immediate release – March 2011

Instarmac...going that extra mile

Contract kicked off early? Do you need to know the exact delivery time of your order? Real time delivery tracking is available from Instarmac – for their Ultracrete, Ultrascap, Ultra Tile and Ultra Floor brand ranges. Simply call their head office and be given your driver's exact location.

Instarmac's in-house vehicle tracking system provides live location updates – highlighting the exact location of each of their 21-strong fleet of vehicles. The service is available to all customers and is completely free of charge, assisting you with your own project planning and stock control.

Do you have warehouse space being taken up by empty pallets stacked high? Tired of the time it takes to dispose of unwanted pallets? Instarmac operate a free pallet collection and recycling service available to all their customers.

Each time an Instarmac delivery arrives at your premises you can reload the lorry with your unwanted reusable Instarmac pallets.

Instarmac...going that extra mile, and providing customer service that is second to none!
