Kingspan a finalist in sustainability awards

Kingspan Insulated Panels was a finalist in the Award for Governance category of the sustain' Magazine Awards 2013, organised by sustain' Magazine in association with Marshalls.

The sustain' Magazine Awards celebrate standout achievements and successes in the field of Sustainability. The trophies were presented at an awards ceremony on Tuesday 5 March at the Guoman Hotel overlooking the River Thames and Tower Bridge in London.

Steve Oxley, Editor of sustain' Magazine, said: "The sustain' Magazine awards 2013 saw an extremely high calibre of entrants demonstrating best practice in sustainability across the built environment spectrum. It is an amazing achievement for Kingspan Insulated Panels to be shortlisted in the face of such strong competition. We are thrilled to be able to host the awards ceremony that recognises the hard work and commitment of those companies and organisations achieving such high levels of excellence."

The sponsors of the awards were Land Securities and Galliford Try Partnerships.
