Team Nifty Mo Bros Thanks Everyone for their Donations

The Mo Bros of Team Nifty have good reason to celebrate this December having raised more than £3,200 for men's cancer charities during Movember by growing and grooming an impressive array of moustaches.

After a month of intensive moustache cultivation, Team Nifty was proud to sport an impressive and varied selection of upper lip hair styles and shapes. But with Movember now over, the Nifty Mo Bros were also pleased to be able shave their top lips once more or at least until next year's Movember!

Team Nifty would like to thank all those that so kindly donated money to this worthy cause and Niftylift congratulates Team Nifty on their efforts in raising such an impressive sum for men's cancer charities.

So until next year, when once again fine moustaches don the lips of Team Nifty Mo Bros, we thank you all for your efforts and your kind donations.

Merry Christmas from Team Nifty and a Happy New Year!
