Niftylift Shortlisted for HAE 'Supplier of the Year'

Niftylift has been shortlisted for the 'Supplier of the Year' award at the HAE Hire Awards of Excellence 2013.

Winners of The Hire Association Europe Hire Awards of Excellence will be announced at a ceremony to be held at The Savoy in London on the 27th April 2013.

The shortlist for 'Supplier of the Year' is based on nominations from HAE members and Niftylift Marketing Manager Simon Maher would like to thank the business or businesses who felt that Niftylift was deserving of this award and nominated the company.

The 'Supplier of the Year' award is unique in that it is decided purely on votes, so Simon is asking for more people to show their support. Anyone who feels that Niftylift deserves to win this award, is asked to please vote by 5pm on Friday March 15th.

People do not need to be an HAE member to vote, just pop over to the HAE website (see link below) where you'll find a voting app and instructions on how to vote.
