The Sash Window Workshop sponsors Period Living Reader Awards

The Sash Window Workshop is proud to be sponsoring the Best Listed Home category in the 2020 Period Living Home and Garden of the Year Awards.

The Sash Window Workshop has had a strong relationship with Period Living and its readers for several years.

The company prides itself in manufacturing and installing the highest quality, traditional timber windows and doors for period properties. With a focus on heritage and bespoke design, the team manufacture all the new joinery in their workshops in Bracknell, Berkshire. They have extensive experience working on a range of period properties, including listed buildings and properties located in conservation areas.

The Period Living Reader awards are run every year by Period Living, highlighting the top renovation projects. The different categories include: Best Project; Best Kitchen; Best Interior Style; Best Listed Home and Garden of the Year.

To enter, readers are required to submit information about their project and explain why they think their home should win. The submissions are then judged by Period Living and the awards are announced at the end of the year, with several category award prizes available. There is also a prize of £1,000 John Lewis vouchers for the overall Home of the Year winner.
